ABOUT Kiss Me, Kate

We're delighted to bring Kiss Me, Kate back to Montagnola, having played it here eight years ago. With music and lyrics by Cole Porter and a script by Bella and Sam Spewack, this entertaining musical follows the backstage story of a theatrical troupe mounting a new musical based on Shakespeare's The Taming of the Shrew.

As the show begins, we discover that it's opening night of Taming of the Shrew, directed by Fred Graham (who is also Producer, Star, and Writer!) and starring both his ex-wife, stage and screen star Lilli Vanessi, and his new girlfriend, Lois. Complicating the relationships even more are the facts that Lois is also dating Bill, the actor-dancer playing her onstage suitor, and that Lilli is newly engaged to a WWII war hero. The plot is as complicated as the relationships are. We learn that Bill has signed a $10,000 gambling debt I.O.U. in Fred's name, and gangsters show up to collect. Of course, through all of this, the show must go on....though it does not always go according to plan!

It's fitting for TESIS to be putting on this musical in our 60th anniversary year, as it combines so magnificently Mrs. Fleming's loves of both Shakespeare and musical theater. And like Mrs. Fleming, co-writer Bella Spewack lived well into her 90s and was very much a smart, creative, successful woman working in what was so often a man's world. Also like Mrs. Fleming, the Spewacks and Porter were brave and bold. In 1948, protesters against racial segregation were picketing Ford's Theatre in Baltimore for its policies on and off-stage. Our writers decided to set their new musical specifically at Ford's Theatre and include African-American characters (which needed to be played by African-American actors). While the characters in question are backstage folk, they are speaking and soloing roles. Thus, Kiss Me, Kate's creative team quietly but pointedly made social commentary on the situation and provided a vehicle for an interracial cast to rehearse and perform together. Additionally, it's made clear that Fred is not Petruchio, and that a woman and a man are best when they are equal partners.

Mostly, though, Kiss Me, Kate is simply a love letter to theater folks and theater itself, so we hope you will enjoy watching as much as we've enjoyed putting it on for you.

COMPANY BIOGRAPHIES

SERENA RAND BARDI '18, USA/ITALY (Lois/Bianca), is excited to play her first big role with this play. This is her first time performing in a big musical production, and she is so happy to be able to participate in this project alongside such amazing people. In the future she would love to do something that has to do with acting and hopes music and theater will always be part of her life.

TAINA GIGI BARRAU '16, USA/SAUDI ARABIA (Lois/Bianca), is performing in the Spring Musical for the first time. Last year she was in the tech crew for Fiddler on the Roof, but this year she decided to step out of her comfort zone and audition. She's had a wonderful time working with the cast and crew, especially Ms. Carlson, Mr. Morris, and Mr. Frazier-Smith!

DIEGO BLANK '16, SWITZERLAND/BRAZIL (Stage Manager), is infinitely grateful to have participated in the musical this year. This is his first year getting involved in any TASIS play. He is thankful and appreciative of the colleagues he has worked alongside during the production of this masterpiece.

MS. VALERIE BIJUR CARLSON, USA (Director), has been involved in theater for over two decades. Originally from New York, she ran the theater programs at Emma Willard and Connelly School of the Holy Child before coming to TASIS in 2012. She also works as a professional theater stage manager in the USA. Her shout-outs are for David and Ben, who fuel her in multiple ways, and all the TASIS faculty members who understand what theater takes—and gives.

BEGÜM EMIRSOY '16, TURKEY/CYPRUS (Gangster), is delighted to be playing a gangster before graduating. She hopes to end up in engineering school at NYU, BU, or Northeastern. Her past acting at TASIS was as Elsa in The Sound of Music. She sends shout-outs to her amazing gangster partner Defne (Gülüm) and her mother and father for their love and support.

MINO KRONWITTER '17, GERMANY (Set Designer), is participating in his first high school production. He wants to thank his partner, Aida, for the many hours spent together working on the set and, of course, all the rest of the production team for their efforts and energy spent on this musical.

GEORGIA MANTEGAZZA '17, UK (Lilli/Kate), is in her fifth year at TASIS. Past productions include I Want a Dog (Carmen/mother) in middle school; and The Sound of Music (chorus member), The Merchant of Venice (servant), Fiddler on the Roof (Hodel), and Loves Labour's Lost (Jaquenetta) in high school. She is planning to have a long and adventurous career in showbiz and thanks her mother and brother for their support.

ADAM OSGOOD '16, USA/FRANCE (Gremio/General Harrison Howell), is both excited and sad to be partaking in his last theatrical performance at TASIS and would like to give a huge thanks to his family, friends, and Ms. Carlson. Previous TASIS performances include the King in Love's Labour's Lost, Gratiano in Merchant..., Rolf in The Sound of Music, and Macduff in Macbeth.

COMPANY BIOGRAPHIES

MARIA EDUARDA VIEIRA PALUDO '17, BRAZIL (Sets & Props), does not have any prior theatrical experience. She intends to continue working on theater sets because she appreciates decoration and design. She thanks TASIS for offering her this opportunity.

LAUREN RIBA '19, SOUTH AFRICA (Ensemble), is excited to be performing in her first production at TASIS. She has always been passionate about musical theater and looks forward to being in many more productions in the future.

LAUREN ROBBERS '16, USA (Hattie), appeared in last spring's Fiddler on the Roof, is a member of the A Capella Group at TASIS, and is graduating in a month! She shouts out an enthusiastic "I love you guys!" to her parents.

DEFNE SAHENK '16, TURKEY/USA (Gangster #1), has acted in Macbeth, The Sound of Music, Fiddler on the Roof, and Love's Labour's Lost at TASIS. In middle school she was in Peter Pan and Alice in Wonderland. She is excited to be playing a comical character, especially opposite her real-life partner-in-crime, Begüm, who has made this her favorite production to date. In the fall she will attend Babson College and hopes to continue theater productions there.

IVAN SEMASHEV '18, RUSSIA (Bill Calhoun), is happy to be taking part in yet another production at TASIS. He has been seen in The Merchant of Venice and Fiddler on the Roof. He would like to thank his parents, his sister, and his girlfriend for their support in doing what he loves throughout this long journey from auditions to opening night.

MARGHERITA VANINI '17, ITALY/RUSSIA is an alumna of the Artistic Movement of Ticino and Vocal Care Program Danila Satragno Milan. She was featured in The Wizard of Oz (ISC production, 2013), Romeo and Juliet (Lugano's Teatro Focce MAT company, 2014), and The Visit (Teatro Focce MAT, 2015). She also played Rosaline in Love's Labour's Lost at TASIS last fall. She thanks her father for making her fall in love with the world of performance, and her mother for always supporting her unconditionally.

JONATHAN XIE '16, USA/CHINA (Fred/Petruchio), is eager to perform in his first theatrical endeavor. He hopes to continue doing theater recreationally at university and is infinitely grateful to Ms. Carlson, Mr. Morris, and Mr. Frazier-Smith for giving him this incredible opportunity.

TAYLOR WRIGHT '18, USA (Pops, Phillip), is thrilled to be in the play. He started acting in 5th grade with a fairly large role in his school play and soon after went on to join an acting school in Los Angeles. Since then he hasn't acted but is still enthusiastic about the art. He wishes every one of his colleagues good luck.

ADDITIONAL MEMBERS OF THE CAST & CREW hail from France, Italy, Switzerland, Turkey, the United States, Venezuela, and the Virgin Islands. They represent the Classes of 2016, 2017, 2018, & 2019.
